

Your Croke Park Suite...

It's a place in history...

A Chara,

Páirc an Chrócaigh iomhá dhathúil agus chorraitheach d'Eirinn, láthair na gcomhreach idir laochra agus croí an naisiúin.

Croke Park is renowned worldwide, with a reputation that is testament to our uncompromising standards of excellence, both on and off the pitch.

Continuing to lead the way, Croke Park is the first stadium in the world to receive BS 8901 certification for sustainable event management.

The stadium offers entertainment at the highest level, its long and proud tradition of hospitality continuing to impart the warmest of welcomes.

Awaiting our suite holders and their guests is a superior service, delivered by our dedicated corporate hospitality team.

We look forward to welcoming you to Ireland's foremost sporting venue.

Is mise le meas,

Cristóir Ó Cuana
Uachtarán Chumann Lúthchleas Gael

A place for excitement...

On the pitch, you will see great sporting contests of hurling and football, and spectacular exhibitions of skill. You will feel your pulse start to race as, around the stadium, tens of thousands of heartbeats quicken. You will be immersed in a unique atmosphere of heightened emotions and elevated voices.

Your suite comes alive with the action. Here you will experience a level of corporate hospitality befitting a venue that continues to attract the very best to perform within its famous stands.

A place to impress...

Your Croke Park suite is an exclusive dining and entertainment space with private bar facilities, flexible catering options, flat screen TV, WiFi, private external seating and dedicated hospitality services.

In addition, you will have branding opportunities, reserved parking options, complimentary programmes and access to our premium level.

These beautifully finished suites range in seating capacity from 12 to 36 and afford guests panoramic views of the stadium.

A place for entertaining and fine dining...

Let us help you choose the perfect menu for every occasion, whether it calls for formal service or a casual buffet.

From arrival drinks and finger buffet, through to a post match reception, your team of hospitality professionals will take care of every detail.

Clients, colleagues, family or friends – whoever you choose to invite, your guests will be our guests, leaving you to concentrate on the business of entertaining.

A place to call your own...

There's so much more to Croke Park than match day. We invite you to use your suite for meetings, presentations and informal gatherings.

Perfectly situated on the edge of the city centre and in close proximity to Dublin airport, the stadium is ideally located to host a range of business and social events.

Suite owners also enjoy additional benefits, such as priority options on tickets for concerts and other events at Croke Park, and reduced rates on conferencing facilities.

Our team is dedicated to ensuring that you get the most from your suite for years to come. We look forward to seeing you.
